Sworn to and subscribed before me —, for the — of this day of —, A. D. 18;—, and in testimony thereof I bereunto absorbe my name and affix my official seal the day and year aforesaid.

Norz.—When the oath is taken before a Justice of the Peace, the certificate of the clerk of a court of record should be added, under his seal of office, that the person who administered the oath is a duly qualified Justice of the Peace.

INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS AND POSTMASTERS:

Containing also conditions to be incorporated in the contracts to the extent the Department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails.

2. On routes where the mode of conveyance admiss of it, the special agents of the Postoffice Department, also postoffice blanks, mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

Department, also postofice blanks mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

3. "Way bills" or receipts, prepared by peatmasters or other agents of the Department, will accompany the mails, specifying the number and destination of the several bags, to be examined by the peatmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of bags and pouches.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for such of such omissions, if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier, three times the pay of the trip will be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalities, proportioned to the nature thereof, and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay will be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinpress as aforesaid; of for transporting persons or package conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may discontinue or extend a contract, change the schedule and termini of a route, and alter, increase, decrease, or extend the service, in accordance with law, he allowing a pro rata increase of compensation for any additional service thereby required, or for increased speed, if the employment of additional stock or carriers is rendered necessary; and in case of decrease, curtailment, or discontinuance of service, as a full indomnity to said contractor, one month's extra pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pro rate compensation for the service retained. Provided, the towever, that, in case of increased expedition, the contractor may, upon timely notice, relinquish the contract.

9. Payments will be made by collections from, or drafts on, postmasters or otherwise, after the application of each quarter—say in November.

rebruary. May and August, provided that required evidence of service has been received.

10. The distances given are believed to be substantially correct; but no increased pay will be stantially correct. A claim for additional pay, the conditions of hills, roads, streams at a considered, not be considered, not be considered, not be stantially correct. member of a firm, where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

15. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed proposals furnished by the Department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to retain copies of them.
Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn. No withdrawal of a bidder or guarantor will be allowed unless the withdrawal is received twentyfour bours previous to the time fixed for opening the proposals.
Each bid must be guaranteed by two responsibid persons. The bid and guarantee should be signed plainly with the full name of such person.

The Fostmasser tenteral reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant; and also to disregard the bids of failing contractors and bidders. (Act of June 8, 1872, section 249.)

16. The bid should be scaled, subscribed
"Mail Proposals, State of Nevada," addressed
"Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contract Office "Bids of $5,000 per annum and upward must be accompanied by a certified check, or draft, on some solvent National Bank, equal to 5 per cent, of the amount; also bids for service which now costs $5,000 or more per annum.
Where the present pay is $6,000 or more, it is stated in the advertisement under the appropriate route.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the Department by or before the last day of June, 1874, otherwise the accepted bidder will be considered as having failed, and the Postmaster General contract for the service with other parties, according to law.
Transfers of contracts, or of interest in contracts, are forbidden by law, and consequentley cannot be allowed. Neither can bids or interext in bids, he transferred or assigned to other parties. Bidders will therefore take notice that they will be expected to perform the service awarded to them through the whole contract term.

18. Section 249 of the act

they will be expected to perform the service awarded to them through the whole contract term.

18 Section 24° of the act of June 8, 1872, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be "awarded to the lowest bridger tendering sufficient quarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security thereof." Under this law bids that propose to transport the mails with "calerity, certainty, and security," having been decided to be the only legal bids, are construed as providing for the estire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode of conveyance necessary to Itsare its "celerity, certainty, and security," and have the preference over all others, and no others are considered, except for steamboat routes.

19. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with regular competition. Making a new bid, will guarantee and certificate, is the only way to modify a previous bid.

20. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify to the sufficiency of guarantors without knowing that they are p. reons of sufficient responsibility, (See section 247, act of June 8, 1872.) They must not sign the certificate until the sum of the bid is inserted, and the bid and guarantees are signed by the bidder and (two) guaranters; a disregard of this inserted on by Postmasters will subject them to immediate removal and to severe penalties.

it is the duty of the Postmaster at the head of the route to make requisition on the Contract Office of this Department for such locks and poundes before lat of July next provided the route be let.
